Reinstate Karen Reissmann

Stop union victimisation

We have a right to fight NHS cuts
We have a right to speak out

We the undersigned were appalled to hear that Karen Reissmann, a leading UNISON activist and a psychiatric nurse with more than 25 years experience, was sacked for the “crime” of speaking out against cuts and privatisation. We believe that everyone has the right to fight cuts. We support the community mental health teams who are on indefinite strike in support of Karen. We demand her immediate reinstatement.
